Farm it Maybe - This interactive tour focuses on historic homesteading of the early 1900s.

Meet me at the Tree - This interactive tour focuses on the importance of shelterbelt trees on the prairies.

How do I pay for my tour?

Fees are to be paid upon arrival at the front kiosk. Cash, credit cards, debit cards, and cheques are accepted. Cheques are made payable to "The Receiver General for Canada". No invoicing.

What do we need to bring?

Please have participants bring a water bottle, walking shoes, hat, and to dress for the weather. Other items that may be needed are bug spray and sunscreen. Our tours operate rain or shine!

Are your facilities wheelchair accessible?

Yes! All buildings on site are wheelchair accessible, including all washrooms and historic buildings! Please contact us if special arrangements are needed to be made.

Is there a Gift Shop?

Yes! The Friends of the Motherwell gift shop offers souvenirs for your group to pick up at the end of your tour. Please contact the Friends of the Motherwell (Motherwellfriends@gmail.com) well in advance of your tour to discuss. If your group would like time to browse the gift shop, don't hesitate to discuss with the guide upon arrival.

I've sent in the booking form, now what?

Once your booking request is processed, you will receive a confirmation via email. If both your preferred and optional dates are unavailable, we will reach out to you to arrange an alternate date.

Who do I contact if I have more questions?

Please don't hesitate to send an email to lnhomestead-motherwell-motherwellhomesteadnhs@pc.gc.ca, or call us during operational hours at 306-333-2116. We would love to hear from you!
